

Privacy Policy

The pages on the website (the "Website") are published by Novicell ApS ("Novicell") on behalf of ISIC A/S ("ISIC", "us" or "we").

The Website will not collect any information about individuals, except where it is specifically and knowingly provided by them.

When you visit ISIC's website, Novicell's web server collects some basic information such as your internet service provider's domain name, which pages you accessed on the site, and when.

We and Novicell use this information only to analyse the use of our website to help guide improvements. We do generally not collect any personally identifiable information.

If you register for the newsletter, you will need to provide your name and email address. This information will be held by Powerhosting ApS for administration of the newsletter service. The information will not be used for any other purpose; it will be stored securely and will not be shared with third parties. By registering for the newsletter, you consent to this use of your name, email address and other relevant information.

If you request information on a specific product using the Request function you will need to provide your name, e-mail and telephone number. This information will be held by Powerhosting ApS for administration of the Request service. The information will not be used for any other purpose; it will be stored securely and will not be shared with third parties. By using the Request function, you consent to this use of your name, email address and other relevant information.

Cookies

This website uses cookies, which are small pieces of information that allow them to maintain your connection to the website. This website may use cookies for detecting what kind of device you have in order to present content in the best way, for a language switch and/or for other purposes. These cookies do not collect or store any personally identifiable information. You can refuse to use cookies.

Google Analytics

This website uses Google Analytics, a web analytics service provided by Google, Inc. ('Google'). Google Analytics uses cookies (text files placed on your computer) to help the website operators analyse how users use the site. The information generated by the cookie about your use of the website (including your IP address) will be transmitted to and stored by Google on servers in the United States. Google will use this information for the purpose of evaluating your use of the website, compiling reports on website activity for website operators and providing other services relating to website activity and internet usage. Google may also transfer this information to third parties where required to do so by law, or where such third parties process the information on Google's behalf. Google will not associate your IP address with any other data held by Google. By using this website, you consent to the processing of data about you by Google in the manner and for the purposes set out above.

Sharing Tools

This website uses sharing tools. Sharing tools allow you to share content through social networks such as LinkedIn, Facebook or Twitter. When you use one of these buttons, the social networking site may place a cookie on your computer. This would be a third-party cookie set by the social networking site. If you have any questions about the use of these third-party cookies, you should check the relevant social networking site's cookie policy.

How to Refuse the Use of Cookies

You may refuse the use of cookies by selecting the appropriate settings in your browser. However, if you do this you may lose some useful functionality.

Other

You can always contact ISIC A/S to know about which information that has been registered regarding you on isic@isic-systems.com or phone +45 70 20 70 77. If you have objections to these data, you can contact ISIC using same contact info. You can recall your consent and you can make a complaint regarding the handling of data to the "Datatilsynet" cf. § 58, para. 1.

Data are deleted or anonymized continually as the purpose of the data collection gets irrelevant.

We reserve the right to update and change this privacy policy if necessary.
